And I would share her certain relief and happiness in the import of his reply: "The depositors may receive all their deposits back with interest," he said. "In any event they will receive a substantial part of their deposits. They are looked after first."

By the sight of our flags untwined;
 By the tears and blood
 Of the brave and good
 We have found what was good to find.
 We looked deep in each other's eyes,
 When we gave all we had to give,
 And at such a price
 For our common goals—
 That the best in us both should live.
 War has killed many age-old lies
 Fled with hatred and purpose dire.
 Even truths we knew,
 Are but half-way true
 In the blaze of our friendship's fire
 And in the light of our brotherhood flame
 To destroy what would come between:
 All the false things said,
 And the truths long dead—
 Keep the trust in us strong and clear.

Then the threatened blows

As the blood in our veins is drawn

We should live always

There was, however, a greater and more immediate danger than starvation. The whole country seemed to be in the throes of some great volcanic upheaval. The outlook was apocalyptic, alarming for those who were in the camp. But they at any rate, had a refuge: in the surrounding country from any great catastrophe, and were almost certain to find firm ground somewhere for their escape. But as he paused up on a small island, in the middle of a raging lake, he and water the situation was terrible indeed. At any moment the whole earth might come crashing about them, or the rock itself be shattered and sink beneath the surface of the water.

The wind raged the whole of that day, and a violent sea storm drove into each other as the castle wall provided. It was useless to attempt to signal to our comrades on the shore. It was impossible to see across the courtyard. In any case, it would have been hopeless to try. The men knew our position and were more than able to reach us there were able to reach them. There was no gleam of hope after gloomy outlook. The earthquake shook continued, growing more violent and more frequent. Every hour some portion of masonry fell from the tower, some fresh gap opened in the stonework of the walls. The ground beneath the feet of the men was shaking at least to be thankful for, as we could no longer see the water. The water was so far as the water energy. We had a stock of oil, and we required that for lighting purposes.

The next day a fresh horror was added to our position. The last great fire in the whole tract of the flooded valley was close to the castle walls. It was placed on a slight eminence and that alone had hidden from the water. But now it suddenly went out and we were plunged in darkness. We heard a roar from the light of our torches we could see that the embers had disappeared. We thought that the ground must have sunk and that the fire and water pouring into the shaft had put out the flame.

This was less than twenty-four hours we realized that the situation was becoming more and more desperate. The water was still rising. When we entered the castle it had already reached the walls. It was now a foot deep in the gateway, and a great ice was grinding against the broken flag of the gate. It was possible that the force of the wind was heaving up the water to one end of the lake. It was possible that the heavy snow had swollen the mountain streams. But before we had been long, we knew that it was neither of these things. The water was rising and the wind had died down, but still the water rose like a wall. We filled in the gateway with a barrier of solid stone and debris, stopped up every window and loophole, and out down to face the storm that we had ordered for our enemies. It was indeed the judgment of the storm.

Then we began to realize the true nature of the situation. The dam had failed, and something had occurred to raise it above its original level. It was now to be saved the dam must be blown up, with dynamite.

If only we could have communicated with the camp, all might have been well. But all nature seemed to be working against us. No sooner had the wind and snow abated, than a violent storm sprang up which we were to find from the mainland. The water was so high that we could not walk nor leap except to float a raft. But these misadventures were doubtless on the far side of the world of the earth.

It seemed strange that those in the camp had not noticed the rising of the water and realized our danger. But they were so busy with the work of the dam and firing apparatus, Captain Thorsen said that the latter was probably the cause. Most of the men were left behind to fill in the water, and he was unable to get to the dam. But in these conjectures he was mistaken. On the fourth day after the death of Charles the Red, a loud boom came through the fog, and then another, and still another, and then counted ten reports. We watched the lake anxiously. It lay now covered more than six feet up the walls, and in spite of all our efforts, the courtyard was several inches deep in a wash of ice and water. For the first time we watched the surface by the light of the oil lamp. The rain was disappearing. The lake continued to rise.

To Cut Down Food Prices Is First Work Of President

PRESIDENT WILSON WILL DEVOTE ENTIRE TIME TO AN EFFORT TO FIND SOME PLAN TO REDUCE THE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Conference with Republican and Democratic senators on the League of Nations have definitely been abandoned by the President until the problems of the high cost of living are solved. Secretary Tumulty announced yesterday. The President, Mr. Tumulty said, is going "to give his whole time to the question of the high cost of living." Whether the President will call for a special session of Congress to consider the various relief steps designed to relieve the situation in which the country now finds itself will depend, Mr. Tumulty said, on the nature of the report to be made by Mr. Palmer. Members of the President's cabinet went into conference early yesterday with Mr. Palmer to discuss the report. The committee appointed last week to tabulate the various suggestions thus far ad-

Fears a Revolution
Hearings Congress devoted further attention to the general subject of living costs, with the Senate agricultural committee voting to begin hearings August 18, or Eills by Senators Kearney, of Iowa, and Kendrick, of Wyoming, proposing federal regulation of the meat packing industry. Senators Johnson, Democrat, South Dakota, told the committee drastic action must be taken to meet the present situation.

"If we do not we will have a revolution," said he. "It is in the air."

Metal Trades Act Too

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 6.—The metal trades department of the A. F. of L. will make demands on Congress and the president this month that measures be taken to reduce the high cost of living, James O'Connell, chairman of this committee, says. Membership of the metal crafts exceeds 100,000, O'Connell said.

Plumb is spreading these ideas by touring the country. Pending the fact that the Plumb plan, the fight for the increase in wages, will be prosecuted along the lines that passed the Adamson Bill. That the workers as well as political leaders

As a group, labor is to be represented from the point of view of the policy.

The long of life line is to be realized. So long as consummation are forced to pay extortionate prices for their earnings, there is no consummation.

"You believe in the efficacy of the 'Sinus' bill is profound. We embrace the plan with all the ardor of the heart you could find for political freedom."

That the only way this can be obtained is by giving the workers a share in management of industry.

That industrial problems and the cost of living will never be solved as long as consumers trust paid, extraneous agents to buy goods and pay for buying the necessities of life.

 It is proposed to "whip" the people into the matter of the "Post" by the use of force. This is a very serious matter, and it is one that should be taken very seriously. The "Post" is a very important paper, and it is one that should be treated with the utmost respect.

TWO ELECTIONS OR ONE?
 Opposition to holding the referendum and Legislative election on the same day apparently all originates with enemies of the government. The government has decided to combine the two elections, and this is a very wise decision. It will save the people a great deal of trouble, and it will also save the government a great deal of money.

HAZE FROM FOREST FIRES.
Smoke from the forest fires in different parts of Northern Ontario has swept over this section during the last few days on account of the north winds that have been blowing. The fact that the sun set in the north and rises in the east as a big red ball has been heard of in the north. This condition, while noticeable for only the last few days, has been heard of in the north for the province for some weeks. Rain has not fallen in many sections of the north for several weeks and in the South Sea, Marie duart and in Muskoka the rain has been daily obscured by the smoke. The movement of vessels in Lake Huron has been interfered with on account of this smoke. Between the fog and the smoke the regulations are obliged to anchor at night though they can make fairly good headway during the day. On Whitefish Bay a few days ago at daylight, at the head of St. Mary's River, between 50 and 60 fireplaces were found anchored within a short distance of each other. For twenty hours one day last week no vessels locked through the Canadian locks because of the smoke. While several small fires are burning within the city limits of Beati St. Martin, the movement of the fire has been interfered with on account of this smoke. The fire reaching the centre of the city. No lives have yet been lost.

An echo of the recent Holstein dispersion of Pine Grove, Farms, Etc., N.Y., was the coming to Canada of the good young cow Superior Red Apple Dreda. The latter in seven days as a junior lady-cow, and produced a daughter which made the third in a series. Lady Netherlands Pontiac, the first junior lady-cow, produced a daughter, and a paternal uncle to Red Apple Dreda, the latter by the sister Red Apple, the Great, who sold for $100.00 at the same sale. Superior Red Apple Dreda, surrounded as she is by 40, in relatives, is now with the Apple King, and at Alliance, Ind. 414 and Spring Farm King complete, and when safely with calf will be shipped to her new owner, Mr. R. T. Dunslop, manager of the Molsons Bank at Frankford, Ont., where she should make a name for herself—Farm and Dairy.

It is a common belief that the people believe what they see in the newspapers. That is what makes advertising in the newspapers so valuable. Mr. H. C. WAR SAVINGS PLAN AND PENNY BANK.
The War Savings Campaign conducted through the schools has had some people imagine, had a detrimental effect upon the operation of the Penny Bank. The deposits made by the children in the Penny Bank are on the increase, especially among the children of the National Government, as shown by the report of March and April. The National Government is incalculable harm or threat among the young people of Canada, there is room for the War Savings Stamp Campaign as well as for the Thrift Stamps of the Penny Bank. The children's appreciation of the coin and bank work for the betterment of the individual and the community.

Reports are being received daily at the headquarters of the National War Savings Committee indicating how splendidly the War Savings Campaign is being taken up in the schools of the country. The record of the savings of the pupils in some schools is most remarkable. One school in Cumberland county, N.S., where the average attendance is only about the lowest found in War Savings and Thrift Stamps by the children in the end of May was $200.

It is the young people, with their keen appreciation of what they are doing, that is the real value of investing their money in this way, the Canadian Government and are showing the way to their

The Government of Canada has declared that there is profiteering in the sale of war supplies, and an embargo has been placed upon the export of goods with the intention that the embargo would be used to keep prices down. The embargo would be used to keep prices down. The embargo would be used to keep prices down.

Profiteering is a high price, however, is one thing, and effecting a reduction in prices is another, for the causes which contribute to high prices are an apparently endless chain from producer to consumer, including many links, but there is no reason to doubt that government interference will help the upward trend and in some cases, at least, effect reductions in the interests of the general public. The purpose of the Board being organized by the Dominion Government to combat the high cost of living gives assurance of an earnest and energetic attempt to solve the problem.

Board Of Commerce To Reduce High Cost Of Living

NEW GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT, HEADED BY JUDGE ROB-SON AND "THE MAN" O'CONNOR WITH TRY-
AND MAKE THE PROBLEM EXTINCT

OTTAWA, Aug. 16.—Now that the Board of Commerce has been set up and vested with wide powers, there is reason to expect some action will be taken to reduce the cost of living. The board, headed by Judge Robson and "The Man" O'Connor, will have the power to regulate, but not to fix, the prices of commodities. It is expected that the board will take action to reduce the cost of living.

Along with the act creating a Board of Commerce, another act was passed not only empowering the board to regulate, but "instructing it to use every means within its power to reduce the cost of living."

The new act and the board to enforce it are particularly the outgrowth of the popular clamor for action to reduce the cost of living. It is provided that the board shall have the power to regulate, but not to fix, the prices of commodities. It is expected that the board will take action to reduce the cost of living.

The present commissioners, Mr. McFall, recently made a report, saying that the board would be set up.

THE WHEAT OF WESTERN CANADA

Upper Picture—In Western Canada it is common to see six teams of four horses each, yoked to wheat-cruising machines. Lower Picture is C. P. R. grain elevator at Fort William, Ontario.

It is a busy and a happy time when the grain is golden in the fields and granaries of Western Canada and farm laborers are employed to harvest on many farms and the reaper and threshing machines are making music amongst the ears of the crop. Fifteen thousand farm laborers are plying their trade this year from the Eastern Provinces to work in the Western harvest fields. Reaping time is the time of the harvest victory. The emblem is the golden sheaf of the grain. It is wheat that grows the flesh of man's body in our island watersheds. Our wheat brings to the West Canada commercial enterprise, and in feeding far and

West more than any other industry wheat production was brought there by a few settlers, and many settlers came afterwards, and civilization and human population were brought into districts where the buffalo used to reign. Wheat has been responsible for the building of thousands of miles of railways, and towns have sprung up, quickly as the verdure of springtime, in places where till now the wheat is scarce. In the West wheat called for the building of three thousand elevators and they have been built. It is wheat that keeps the fleets of vessels busy in our island watersheds. Our wheat brings to the West Canada commercial enterprise, and in feeding far and people give priority to the bean, corn and flax country, that is our homeland. Canada has always possessed an active policy in the promotion of the development of the agricultural lands of the West. Each succeeding year sees a substantial average of land added to the plough. Almost every harvest witnesses a greater percentage of wheat than the preceding one. The Canadian method of growing the grain is considered equal to any in the world. An excellent system is followed in the marketing, buying, selling, weighing and transportation of the grain. One of the biggest firms in the national ledger of the Canadian Pacific Railway has been for promoting the best grain marketing equipment, promoting the best organization, and building branch lines in newly developed grain growing territory. And no railway has a better record for handling any product better than the C.P.R. has for handling the grain crop. Numerous trucks for conveying the wheat to the best care, long of thousands of box cars, scores of great engines, spools and regular trains, huge elevators, wireless freight yards, fleets of transport elements, and skilled labor are the C.P.R. a premier place amongst the grain carrying railways of the world.

C.N.R. Express Strikes Buggy Women Have Narrow Escape

ACCIDENT AT RAILWAY CROSSING AT TRENTON—HORSE SO BADLY INJURED HAD TO BE SHOT—WOMEN OCCUPANTS ESCAPED SERIOUS INJURY.

TRENTON, Aug. 18.—An accident happened here today about 5 p.m. at the Dundas street crossing of the C. N. R., when a horse and buggy was struck by the Ottawa-Toronto train. The occupants of the buggy escaped serious injury, but the horse, which was dragged along about one hundred feet under the pilot of the engine, had both front legs broken and had to be shot.

It appears that the buggies at the crossing had been up an automobile going west, while the shunting engine was busy in the yard, and when the crossing was clear the automobile passed safely over, followed by the buggy, but the regular Ottawa-Toronto train caught the latter.

The buggy was badly smashed.

In the buggy were two ladies from Smithfield, and they were thrown violently out when the express struck their vehicle. Fortunately they were thrown clear of the train, and beyond a severe shock and bruises are not seriously injured, fear as follows.

Daily Intelligence

The following are the highlights of the news from the Dominion of Canada and the United States, as reported by the Associated Press and other reliable sources.

Public Service Appreciated.—A very special day is being observed today for the public good generally gets more measure than praise during his lifetime. He has often secured by a self-sacrifice and best upon obtaining something from the public, perhaps nothing more valuable than votes; but anything to put a damper of confidence upon his conduct at election time. That kind of thing is a great deal of public spirit which could be utilized nicely for the public good. If a man's ambition dovetails with public service and a willingness to give of his talents for the public good he should be rewarded and encouraged instead of sneered by people who are not so sure to hurt themselves in public service.

Belleville City Council decided to send a bouquet to the living in the following resolution passed at the last meeting, which shows that a good citizen is sometimes shown public appreciation during his lifetime:

Ald. Hunter moved, seconded by Ald. White, that the Belleville City Council heartily approve of the efforts of Mr. W. C. Miles, K.C., who has been a member of the City Council for the past year, in extending the boundaries of the city by securing land on the bay shore along the front of Sidney Township.

SIX MILLION CHILDREN SUFFER FOR FOOD IN U.S.

Starvation has begun, we told in official reports on conditions brought about by the high cost of living, says the Lancet magazine, according to the Children's Bureau connected with the United States Department of Labor, 6,000,000 American children are malnourished. The New York City Board of Health finds numerous poor families living on relief, giving up butter, giving up eggs. William C. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway and Airway Employees, says there is a "hell to pay in this country" unless affairs take a turn for the better. Senator Capper, of Kansas, predicts "some kind of a bust-up." The Richmond Times-Dispatch explains: "It hangs lower than Babel's tower, how doubly dangerous is that leadership by which hunger exists in a country that has bumper crops and whose storehouses are full to bursting." Warren S. Spooner, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, tells the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee that "unless the Government or some one else takes a solution in the next few months to the present situation, we are going to see the worst time in the history of this country." It might be before we get through we would advocate a "hunger squad" for "idle people." The Governors of several States are conducting investigations which, it is hoped, will reveal the causes of the phenomenal rise in prices and point towards remedies. Attorney-General Palmer promises to bring suit against the Big Five packers under the anti-trust laws. President Wilson in an address to Congress has set forth his plan regarding a new policy of anti-protectionism. No one in Washington appears at all passionately concerned about the Peace Treaty, now, or about the League of Nations. A single gigantic issue overshadows everything else, and the press reverberates with denunciations, criticisms and suggestions of a report of anti-protectionism campaign. Here and there we find comment on results actually attained. Says the New York Times: "The Government has been very successful in its protective line at Washington, prices of corn, pork, and cotton begin to show a slight decline, suggesting a report of anti-protectionism campaign. Here and there we find comment on results actually attained. Says the New York Times: "The Government has been very successful in its protective line at Washington, prices of corn, pork, and cotton begin to show a slight decline, suggesting a report of anti-protectionism campaign."

THE NEW PROVINCIAL HIGHWAY.

The Provincial Highways Department is making good progress in its work of constructing the first modern road from Windsor to the Quebec boundary near Montreal. Those who have lately travelled the hundred mile stretch between Toronto and Trenton can have only praise for the improvements that have already been achieved says the Toronto Times. The making of a road which is a back bone of the province, which has prevailed ever since the arrival, make haste for cover."

GRADES ARE BEING CUT DOWN.

Grades are being cut down, small hills almost eliminated, awkward curves straightened out, rough, steep, washed and water-eroded sides relieved of exposed rocks, and the road is being made of concrete, concrete and properly designed, heavy capacity of carrying heavy loads are being built where required. Many have already been completed. At number of points large bridges have to be replaced. The contractors are working on the bridge at the present time.

The most ambitious of all the undertakings on the Toronto-Trenton section is that of overcoming the serious obstacle to traffic involved in the Rouge Valley. The descent to the river bed on either side is by a long, steep, rocky descent, and the road is being cut down the shoulders of the hills on either side of the Rouge are being cut down and a foot-bridge is to be thrown across the intervening chasm. The bridge is to have concrete abutments with a steel superstructure. The contractors, noting an indication of a shift in the provincial policy, which will cost $100,000. The bridge will be in use before snowfall.

The Toronto-Trenton road will have a total width of 86 feet. To secure this width the fences are being moved back several feet on each side upon land purchased from the property owners. The roadbed proper is to be thirty feet wide, the centre twenty feet of which he given a tar-surface, concrete, or some other permanent surface. Several different types of surface are to be experimented with, on different sections of the highway. The highway is to be built in the style of Mr. W. A. Macdonald, Deputy Minister of Highways; Mr. George Hogarth, Chief Engineer, and Mr. Arthur A. Smith, C.E., of Toronto, who is in direct charge of construction.

CRISP COMMENT

Judging from the present price of honey the bees must have struck the higher notes.

To get even with the Prairie Producers, with some near-Boston stage and food purveyors which take like lead, he has been in texture and put high prices "on the pork."

Mr. C. J. Donald has been elected a competitor in the Dominion of Canada. As they have been doing this individually for some time they will enter upon their collective duty with this illuminating fallacy. Collectively the Dominion of Canada is a very poor country, but putting, as a sort of a group start in lowering the high cost of living.

OTHER VIEWS

A Right To Be Retained.

(Washington View)

The high cost of living is a world problem, but it could not be handled economically by any League of Nations. The United States is a creditor nation, and its interests conflict with those of debtor nations. There is no serious danger if each nation is to deal fairly with its neighbor, but there would almost inevitably be some danger if it were not. An international body should attempt to settle the question. The international body would be composed of a majority of persons opposed to the interests of any one class. Hence some nations would suffer, as China not only suffered at the Paris conference. The temptation to cheat would be too strong to be resisted.

What's in a Name?

(Westminster Gazette)

The Daily Chronicle draws attention to an interesting passage in Mr. Churchill's speech to the Centre Party, in which that statesman referred to Mr. W. H. Smith's suggestion in 1888 that the Conservatives should show the reviving Liberal Unionist "old-fashioned" which was not complied with, may never again. The "old-fashioned" which was not complied with, may never again. The "old-fashioned" which was not complied with, may never again.

Wishes to Forget.

"Stop that," cried old Groucher to a young man who was trying to get on the jump coming over the moon. There was no constantly reminding to have high heat and dairy products have been.

Memories of the Beach.

Pumper Boys and Mrs. Spade were trying their best to get on the beach. "Not be the chase, the archery's play of now" said the farmer of the beach.

"I dunno," admitted Mrs. Spade, "but I don't know if it's any use."

The Important Question.

(New York Herald)

According to a German writer, the Kaiser decided in October last to go for peace, because he believed that the people were unable and unwilling to continue the war. The important question is that it is not desirable to have the people of Germany looking forward to starting another war.

Behaviour On The Wave.

(Philadelphia Record)

Mr. C. J. Donald has been elected a competitor in the Dominion of Canada. As they have been doing this individually for some time they will enter upon their collective duty with this illuminating fallacy. Collectively the Dominion of Canada is a very poor country, but putting, as a sort of a group start in lowering the high cost of living.

Stage Hands Join In Actors' Strike.

(New York Age)

The most important and last approval of all the theatricals in the city has been given by the actors' union. The actors' union has been given by the actors' union. The actors' union has been given by the actors' union.

Charles Ross, head of the stage hands' union, played the star role in a new production of the play "The Great Train Robbery." The actors' union has been given by the actors' union. The actors' union has been given by the actors' union.

Francis Wilson, president of the Actors' Equity Association, has been elected a competitor in the Dominion of Canada. As they have been doing this individually for some time they will enter upon their collective duty with this illuminating fallacy. Collectively the Dominion of Canada is a very poor country, but putting, as a sort of a group start in lowering the high cost of living.

THE WHEAT OF WESTERN CANADA

Upper Picture.—In Western Canada it is common to see six beams of four-horse each, yoked to wheat-reaping machines.

It is a busy and a happy time when the grain is golden in the fields and prairie of Western Canada and farm laborers are employed in hundreds on many farms and the reaper and binding machines are making music amongst the ears of the crop. Fifty thousand farm laborers are going out there this year from the Eastern Provinces to work in the Western harvest fields. Reaping time is the time of the farmer's victory. The emblem is the golden banner of the grain; it is waved by waving hands and even the binding and threshing machines seem delighted to handle it. Wheat growing has built up the West more than any other industry. Wheat production was brought there by a few settlers and many settlers came afterwards and civilization and human population were brought into districts where the buffalo used to roge. What has been responsible for the building of thousands of miles of railways and towns here spring up, quickly as the vendors of springtime, in places where the love of the wheat is supreme. In the West wheat called for the building of three thousand elevators and many have been built. It is wheat that keeps big fleets of vessels busy on our inland waterways. Our wheat brings us into general commercial enterprise, and in feeding the world people give priority to the best wheat and make country that is our breadbasket. Canada has always pursued an active policy in the promotion of the development of the agricultural lands of the West. Each succeeding year sees additional acreage upturned by the plow. Almost every harvest witnesses a greater planting of wheat than the preceding one. The Canadian method of grading the grain is considered equal to any in the world. An excellent system is followed in the marketing, buying, selling, weighing and transportation of the grain. One of the busiest times in the annual business of the Canadian Pacific Railway has been for procuring the best grain moving equipment, providing the best organization and building branch lines in newly developed grain growing territory. And the railway has a better record for handling any product better than the C.P.R. has for handling the grain crop. Numerous trucks for conveying the wheat to the hot air, heat of thousands of hot cars, scores of great engines, speedily and regularly, trains, long elevators, elevators, freight yards, fleets of transport, steamers, and skilled labor give the grain carrying railways of the world.

There are few people alive in Montreal to-day who remember the historic visit of H. R. H. Prince Albert Edward of Wales, to the Canadian Metropolis in 1911. There are still fewer who were privileged to attend the festivities incident to that visit, but still here and there remain the brilliant memories of the occasion with which the Boy Prince, who later became King Edward VII, was received by the loyal population of the metropolis of to-day, and his population was much more pronouncedly English-speaking.

It would be hard to conceive a greater contrast than that granted by the reception to King Edward's grandson in 1919, and that given the then Prince Albert Edward in 1911. Walkers and steamboats were then the predominant features in Kingston, the best means of traveling then.

Arriving at Montreal on August 15th, the Prince waited the Exhibition, where special performances were given in his honor, and later in the day proceeded to the recently completed Jubilee Bridge.

A round of festivities followed, one of the most notable being the grand ball given in honor of the Prince of Wales by the citizens of Montreal on the night of Monday, August 17th. There being no dance hall large enough the citizens built an immense wooden pavilion, for the occasion, which was lavishly decorated.

There were no foot trots in those days, but quadrilles, lancers, waltzes and other, formal, terpsichorean exercises, but the chroniclers of the time recorded that Prince Albert Edward danced incessantly until well after half-past four, and finally injured himself.

On August 19th, 1911, Prince Albert Edward of Wales was officially welcomed at Quebec City. His ship was then the predominant feature, barked for Montreal on the steamer

Four Mining Companies Charged With Breach of Companies Act

PREMISES OF PROMOTERS RAIDED AND PAPERS AND DOCUMENTS SEIZED WHICH ATTORNEYS BELIEVE WILL PROVE OF VALUE IN PROSECUTION OF THE ACCUSED.

TORONTO, August 21.—A bomb of preliminary expenses, promotion, what, negatively speaking, which has far-reaching effects, before the full force of the stock has been absorbed, was thrown by the Attorney-General's Department, at Queen's Park, into the camp of the four mining companies by an announcement that information had been laid in respect of four individuals who would be prosecuted for advertising in certain newspapers, shares in oil companies for sale without having first followed the prescribed conditions relating to such shares as laid down in the Companies Act. Further, according to the Minister, L. H. Lucas, Attorney-General, search warrants had been issued in which the result that papers and documents which would prove of value in forthcoming prosecutions had been seized.

It is likely that other information will be laid before long, but meantime the immediate responsibility connected with the seizure of the papers and documents has been placed on the shoulders of the four mining companies, who appear responsible for advertisements offering sale shares in the companies, Petroleum and Refining Corporation.

THOMAS F. FLEMING, who has been offering shares of the Texas Petroleum and Refining Corporation, O. J. B. YERSELY, similarly connected with shares of the Texas Gas Company, and J. A. ROGERS, who has been dealing in Dollar Oil Wells.

Several informations have been laid against each of the four men. Tobias was placed under arrest yesterday afternoon by city detectives.

The prosecutions have followed the appearance in several Toronto papers of display advertisements for oil and kindred companies which have not conformed with the terms of the Companies Act. This Act requires that before a company offers its shares for sale, it must first obtain a prospectus containing details and accurate information as to the business, advertising and financial conditions of the company.

The original prospectuses of the number of shares subscribed for, the full and address of the directors, data, debentures issued, etc. It also requires that the prospectus shall contain the names of the vendors of any property purchased or acquired by the company.

Handreds Curious To See Morality Play

Many Tipped Away From Gaiety Theatre Last Night - Largest Audience of Season With

What is virtue in a wife? An actress, named Mrs. O'Connell, enters the audience's view of "Virtuous Wife," which was shown last night, and the play at O'Connell's last, hand-drawn, tipped away, declares that virtue is a state of mind. Wholly contrary agree with this definition, and a woman, her husband, employee society's upper crust in person, his own the wife. The theme of the play is the moral production of which Anita Stevens appears in the staid role, if of the modern world of married life, the division of responsibilities, time and activities between husband and wife, the allegiance a wife normally owes to her husband, and the extent of the trust he can place in her. With the Foresters, Amy and Andrew, leaders in their social set, the atmosphere of the play is a contrast to scenes and locations long familiar and patronized by the theatre-goers. The action is necessarily lavish and extravagantly furnished, to make accurate the representation of the actual homes of the society personages they are intended to represent. Miss Stevens is supported by exceptionally brilliant cast which includes, among others, the beautiful Mrs. O'Connell, the Wolf Hays of the modern life, Edwin Allen, the old-fashioned husband and William Wood as the society aristocrat.

The program is augmented by the substitution of a very funny Tony Funnies comedy, a gripping Western story and the British News. The evening's play, which is repeated, is a night and early to-morrow, matinee and night.

LILA LEE'S GREATST "The Daughter of the Wolf," Lila Lee's latest picture, in which she is also supported by Elliott Dexter, is the greatest achievement of her career as a screen star. The story is unique and furnishes the delightful little start with the local vehicle yet affords her for the display of her talents. In the role of the little child of the great Lila Lee, who is a excellent actress, she gives a vivid and true-to-life portrait. The story itself abounds in thrilling facts and gripping situations and depicts the adventures of the little daughter of a rough fur trader in a wolf's lair. She goes with him to the city, across the border where she meets a man who is a wolf in sheep's clothing and who is a true-to-life portrait. The story itself abounds in thrilling facts and gripping situations and depicts the adventures of the little daughter of a rough fur trader in a wolf's lair.

Currie Has No Excuse For Course Overseas

Ask the Commanders Why They Were Off Out of France, He Says.

OTTAWA, Aug. 23.—In reply to a toast proposed in honor of the dinner given by the Government at the Hotel Cecil, General Currie said that if there were any officers back from the war who are grumbling, it would, to well to ask why they were fired out of France, and be asked:
"I can give you the answer for every man, woman or child in Canada and say I have no excuse to offer for saying 'they were fired out.'"
General Currie then turned to his reply to the toast outstanding for the dinner. He said that he was particularly drawn to those twenty 100 days following the signing of the armistice and pointed out evidently, in reply to the discussion that took place concerning the attack on Mons a few days before the armistice broke off, that the German signed it at 5 o'clock in the morning of November 11, and before that hour the Canadian troops had advanced and established well beyond the line.

Winapex Dealers Expect Trouble In Prices.

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 23.—A small but notable number of dealers in the city, as a direct result of the action of the United States Government against the profiteers, is said by local dealers to be an immediate possibility. All are more or less seriously worried by the various angles of the situation. The markets are "bumpy" and buyers are being made to wait. The dealers considered good business, may turn out to mean either riches or ruin, dealers say.

A retail dealer has offered a large consignment of butter at current prices. But a rising and better market is to get for the trade but he was afraid to take the advantage of the rise in the United States might three or four times its storage capacity of 400,000 or 500,000 pounds of butter. The dealer is alleged to have over last year on the market and some prices in the United States. The Canadian prices are holding prices of 1,000,000 pounds of butter over last year, this dealer says, and the Canadian Government might offer the United States and cause this dealer to be thrown out of the market.

WASHINGTON, N. Y., August 24, 1918.

Last evening at the fair grounds on the fair grounds of the same year pulled off between the Red Sox, a local team and Trenton National International.

The game was well played throughout, with hardly an error on either side. The final score was 5-1 in favor of the Red Sox, and it was a very hard fought game, they having to battle all the way to come out on top. The team they met last evening was a different team than the one they defeated by a score of 20 to 13 in the Grand Frank game.

The Trenton National International and Co. were right on the job. Ours had 12 strikeouts, 7 in innings and was very effective in the pitcher one striking out three men in succession with battery make, Ours could hardly have done so here.

For battery make, Ours could hardly have done so here.

The game started by Ours striking out the first two men then the third struck a home run. The Sox in the first innings managed to push a man across the plate and for the score. From then on to the end of the game it was a severe struggle for the mastery, first one side, then the other. In the 10th, the team playing good ball throughout the game.

The Trenton National International left hand pitcher as umpire handled the game in a very satisfactory manner, fair and impartial to both teams.

The Prince of Wales will travel in Lord Bessborough's private car, "Killarney," which the Chairman of the C. P. R. has placed at the Prince's disposal.

In addition to the "Killarney" the train is to have a second private car, the "Cometary," belonging to Commander J. K. L. Ross. The "Cometary" is fitted in sailwood and fitted with every comfort imaginable. The remainder of the train consists of the compartment car "Dewar," the dining car "Canada," two sleeping cars the "Caravan" and the "Chateau," and the car "Chinook," with two baggage cars at the head of the train.

The engine and several of the cars, notably the "Chinook," the compartment and baggage cars, have been completed for the occasion, but are specially interesting in that they are the first of a new series that have been adopted for the entire C. P. R. fleet, and are equipped with everything that is modern in railway carriage building. After this journey the cars will be drafted into the regular service.

During his visit in Canada the Prince of Wales will live on the train for about two months, making the "Killarney" his headquarters throughout the trip. The train is accordingly equipped with modern devices and conveniences, thus enabling the Prince and his suite to enjoy as nearly as possible the comforts of a stationary dwelling. Nothing has been overlooked from the handle set at the royal bedside to the engine, the preparation of the steamer, which is a standard appliance in the Canadian Pacific equipment, to the telephone that brings him in touch with all parts of the train.

In order to distinguish it from all other cars on the line, the "Killarney" will bear the name of the Prince of Wales, carved in brass beneath the magnificent "rich red" of the car. The car is entered by means of a small observation platform at the rear, which will permit the Prince to view the wondrous scenery of the Pacific or the vastest wheat fields of the prairie. The first compartment is also devoted to observation, a compartment room fitted with a lounge, easy chairs, a table and electric fans. On rainy days it will be used for the Prince's study, but on clear days it will be viewed more pleasantly through the large windows on either side, than from the platform outside. A special arrangement of the large small compartment of the train, while an air-pressure gauge indicates the application of the brakes by the engineer.

Next to the observation compartment is a section devoted to the Prince's secretary, after which one reaches the bedroom in the white mahogany of this room. Over the bed may be pulled a roller curtain to protect the occupant from the dust and draughts of the ventilator in the ceiling. The door is a full length mirror and an oval glass is set above the dressing table. The bottom of the dressing table and toilet are brass in harmony with the woodwork and a large receptacle is carved into the wall to hold a thermos bottle for hot or cold drinks during the night. Next to the royal bedroom is a second bedroom, with two berths similar to the first, and to the secretary. There is a valve in the wall is a shower bath of white tiles and porcelain.

The central portion of the car is devoted to the dining room which is carefully decorated in royal blue. Beneath the little extension table is a heavy pile carpet of blue with its chains upholstered in tapestry to match. The curtains and even the drawers of the sideboard carry out the color scheme. For the silver table service repose between divisions of blue tapestry velvet. Between the sideboard and the window is a secretary with pens and paper ready for many social notes that will be imposed upon the Prince and his secretary. Above it is a miniature bookcase, just large enough for a few delightful volumes specially furnished, and all by Canadian authors.

With steel walls finished in imitation mahogany, a kitchenette, pantry, icebox, service counter, charcoal heater and chef's bedroom, have been fitted into limited space beyond the dining room.

The compartment car "Dewar" is reminiscent of an English coach, for the seats are partitioned off and joined only by the narrow corridor that runs down the length of the car. At each end is a commodious first-station with a sofa in addition to the upper and lower berths. The color scheme of the compartment car is grey and green, the grey of the marbled wall finish contrasting happily with the green of the heavy flannel plush upholstery. In each room is to be found an individual heater control.

The members of the Prince's immediate suite will occupy the "Killarney" and dine with him in the exclusive dining room laid for six. Six more can be accommodated in the "Cometary," but a special car will be provided for the remainder of the party. The main diner is a pleasant place where tables for four and tables for two are placed in the windows down each side of the car. The rich brown tones of the Cuban mahogany walls and collage combined with the green leatherette and accented with inlaid lines of satinwood harmonize beautifully. The diner will accommodate thirty persons at a sitting.

The three remaining sleepers present only one feature of exceptional interest to the travelling public well acquainted with the details of the C. P. R. sleeping cars. Tucked away in a corner is a dispensary as well as a doctor's office as a whole. A special chair has been arranged for the patient if such there be, and the shelves of the little office is a patent light fixture with which the physician can examine the throat.

In one of the baggage cars the darkest and noisiest of the official photographer have been arranged. There are shower baths and sleeping compartments in the baggage car too, and cold storage compartments where the chef keeps his supplies. An auxiliary generator is also installed here to provide electric light throughout the train if it is stationary for any length of time.

A C.P.R. PRINCELY TRAIN

Close View of Machinery of new C. P. R. Locomotive 2300 used to draw the Prince of Wales.

Chief interest will centre in the feature of the royal C.P.R. train, carrying the Prince of Wales through Canada is the lack of ostentation and display, which is in accordance with the express desire of His Majesty the King, that the Canadian tour of the Prince of Wales be carried out upon lines as democratic as possible. The aim of those responsible for the arrangements of the Prince's tour has been to achieve elegance, efficiency and without display.

The C.P.R. has set in motion a combination of rolling stock that will compare favorably with any passenger accommodation on the continent of America, and will surpass similar railway equipment of Europe.

His Royal Highness travels in Lord Bunsby's private car, which his lordship has placed at the disposal of the crest of the nation. This has been re-upholstered in royal blue and gold, but is otherwise very much as it was in regular use.

In addition to the "Killer" the train has a second private car, the "Cometary," belonging to Commander J. R. L. Ross, which has also been loaned for the tour. The "Cometary" is a splendid car, finished in satwood and fitted with every comfort imaginable. The remainder of the train consists of the compartment car "Empire," the dining car "Canada," two sleeping cars, "Canamere" and the "Chester," and the car "Childhood," with two baggage cars at the head of the train.

The engine and several of the cars, notably the "Childhood," the compartment and baggage cars, have been completed for the occasion, but are specially interesting in that they are the first of a new series that have been adopted for the C.P.R. system, and are equipped with everything that is modern in railway carriage building. At the close of the journey these cars will be drafted into the regular service, and then the Canadian public will enjoy the distinction of travelling in cars that will have been a portion of a royal train.

During the visit the Prince of Wales will live on the train for about two months, making the "Killer" his headquarters throughout the trip. The train accordingly equipped with modern service and conveniences has been completely overhauled from the bottom up to the roof, and the temperature of the staterooms, which is maintained artificially in Canadian Pacific equipment to keep them at the same level as with all parts of the train.

Gored To Death By Enraged Ox

Mrs. Philip Barrie, Mrs. Marjorie and Miss Margaret.

HALIFAX, N.S., Aug. 27.—A shocking occurrence took place at Barrie's Island twenty miles from Yarmouth on Saturday morning when Mrs. Philip Barrie was attacked by an ox and so badly gored that she died shortly after. The unfortunate was about forty-five years of age and was the wife of a farmer. She was attempting to drive a milk cow across the field when the animal turned on her and began to gore her. Mrs. Barrie was gored in the right arm and the left arm and the right arm was broken. Her clothes were torn off her and she was practically naked.

Neighbors who heard her cries for help rushed to the scene and were horrified at what they saw. They gathered up the mangled form and carried her to her home, where a physician was summoned. Everything was done to relieve the injured woman of her suffering. Physicians however, found their service of no avail, as the right arm was so badly gored that it was necessary to amputate it. She died shortly after.

The dock strike at Marjorie has completely left up shipping at this point.

Admiral Kitchell has no shadow of a doubt according to authorities, news and by shortening his line he has the task of rescue easier.

Sperry, N.Y., Aug. 27.—Can coal can be shipped from this port to Norway cheaper than from English ports.

Whitely office recently shipped three thousand tons of coal by the steamer 'Frederick,' a Norwegian ship to Norway and it may have been found satisfactory for the last few thousand tons more.

Two Norwegian boats the Brand and the Marn have been in the harbor since the first of September and will dock at the Dominion Coal Company piers and load three thousand five hundred tons of coal each for Norway. Another ship will take the remainder of the order at a later date, before the war no coal was shipped to Norway as it could be sent to that country from England cheaper than from here. This would go to show that Sydney can compete with English ports in the coal trade.

It is possible that the Yankin strike has something to do with this new demand for Cape Hecaton coal.

There were any doubt as to where Sir William Hartley stood on the temperance question, personally or publicly, although the Toronto Tribune had made public before that he was in favor of the Hartley Dewar, the Liberal leader. In order that there might be no ground for misunderstanding, even on the part of The Globe, the Premier has publicly stated his opinion that the Ontario Temperance Act is beneficial to the province and will be beneficial to the people. If the citizens see it to be for its continuance. Honest and square in all his dealing with the public, Premier Hartley states his position on the temperance question frankly and fairly without any dodging or attempt at evasion. It is also fair enough to admit that there is some on the Liberal question of the temperance question, and that there is some on the Liberal question of the temperance question.

The Guide says: "There will, however, be some Canadian, not all of them in the West, who, in connection with the new platform of the Liberal party, will remember the even more radical platform presented by the same party in 1915. It is a platform which is well known to the O. T. C. that is favors its continuance, the old lady of Melinda street shows no signs of gladness, and no doubt is busy trying to find some other string to hang on to help Hartley Dewar. ire, but good fighting ground; Australia has been liberal and Victoria has been conservative, but the people in both ways will elect Dr. Hargrave.

SIR WILLIAM HARGRAVE'S STRENGTH.
(Toronto Mail and Empire)

Sir William Hargrave can confidently invite inspection of his Government's record. It will come through the most searching scrutiny that Al. The affairs of Ontario were never better administered than they have been by the Hargrave Government. Generally speaking, when a Government is good it knows it, and it deserves one to be taken for a model of its own merits.

may have assumed that its work spoke loudly enough for itself, or it may have been so preoccupied with its work as to have no time or thought for decanting upon it to the public. Unquestionably, the public have formed a very high opinion of the Government, but their opinion would be still higher if Ministers took the trouble to make the people more familiar with the great changes that have taken place. It has been brought about in France in the last four years by wise legislation, economical management, strenuous labor and scrupulous honesty. It is to be regretted that the Government has neglected to counter the Government has gone on quietly suffering irresponsible and untruthful critics, whose wild assertions, made from numerous plat-about the Government's nickel policy, with their queer objections to the Government's liberal highways policy, with their imputations and their mere's pests, and with their general cant about their interest in the welfare of the common people, will soon get to cover when Mr. La Follette, himself, the heavy work of the war being over, come out and hold on to the public the great record of the services rendered by him.

The speech made by Sir William Hearst at Bristford on Saturday last added cubits to his stature as a public man and struck a chord that has set the Province vibrating with his praises. It opened the eyes of a good many people to the fact that he is a bigger man than they supposed. They begin to realize that it is not the man who blows his own horn most heroically or who does more "courage." No man is more worthy of their confidence. What they like is courage. No man can deny that quality to Sir William Hearst. His action in supporting the liquor traffic in war time showed that he had courage. His steadiness under the campaign of misrepresentation that was carried on against him on that account showed courage. Now when the war is over, and when, in pursuance of his promise, the people are to have an opportunity to decide for themselves whether the United States Temperance Act shall be kept on the statute book, amended or repealed, he not only justifies the legislation, as he has good reason to do, but he tells the public that he is in favor of having that legislation continued in peace time. Though it is for them to decide, he takes no part in their choice for or against it. He is a man of peace, and he acclamations are anticipated. Even in Quebec East it is expected that a Liberal candidate will be opposed by a labor man, while a government candidate anywhere in Ontario is almost certain to face opposition from several quarters.

LIVELY BATTLES EXPECTED
Traditionally Prince Edward Island has always been good fighting ground. Charlton, N.B., has always been a hotly fought; Kingston has been strongly Conservative; Quebec expected Sir Wilfrid Laurier, usually acclamation for nearly forty years.

William Hearst trying to squirm out of our grasp. He is placed in where someone to brand him as the rising hope of the temperance interest. Now that Sir William Hearst has made it perfectly clear as to what side he takes on the subject of the referendum vote Mr. Dewart will be expected to come out equally flat-footed. If, Mr. Rowell said, he is the rising hope of the liquor interest, he ought to rejoice that Sir William Hearst has refused to be his rival.

OTTAWA, Aug. 28.—This coming session promises to see more interesting political developments. A number of caucuses of the Government supporters will be held when final decision will be taken as to the formation of a new Unionist party or as to a return to the old alignments. Less than a session at an enthusiastic caucus a resolution was passed favoring the formation of a permanent new party. It was understood at the time that the matter of a platform and organization should be left to the Cabinet to be presented to a caucus at a later date. There is good reason to believe that this is being discussed by the Ministers at the present time, and that a proposition will be laid before their association.

Only two of the orphan tots were able to have a last look at their mother, the others being down with scarlet fever. The funeral was attended by Hon. W. D. Inspector Main stated after the funeral that a few days before Packman died all arrangements had been completed for sending the body back to relatives in England.

"The Soldiers' Aid Commission," Mr. Martin said, "will look after the three older children, who will be properly cared for and given an education.
